

Lesson Plan

Abraham Lincoln: Great Learner and Great Leader

Students will investigate the life of Abraham Lincoln through participation in an Agree/Disagree activity, listening to stories related by the teacher, viewing a musical slide show, reading secondary and primary sources, analyzing information read, and communicating learning by responding to an on-demand writing. The lesson focuses on Lincoln's attributes as a learner and leader.

Grade Level: 3 - 5

Length: 2 - 3 days

Developed and Shared by:

Mary Louise Majors

Curriculum Coordinator

Oran P. Lawler Elementary

Leitchfield, Kentucky

+ Curriculum Standards:

+ Activities:

Click on a link below for in-depth Lesson Plan information:

+ Background Information for Teacher:

Current Lesson Plans

-  Abraham Lincoln: Great Learner and Great Leader
Grade Level: 3 - 5
-  Lincoln's Kentucky Connections and Views on Slavery
Grade Level: 6 - 8
-  Abraham Lincoln's Kentucky Influences
Grade Level: 6 - 8
-  Women on the American Frontier
Grade Level: 5 - 12

 Additional Activities and Resources

 Contact

 Site Map

+ Preparation of Materials and Resources:

-

-

+ Procedures:

Essential Questions:

1. Why is learning about Abraham Lincoln important to my life?
2. What difficulties did Abraham Lincoln face as a learner?
3. How did Abraham Lincoln become a great leader through his words?

+ Key Concepts/Skills:

+ Bloom's Taxonomy:

+ Multiple Intelligences:

+ Materials/Resources:

+ Product/Assessment:

Students Section

This lesson plan has an accompanying website for Student which contains activities and games for the student interaction. These activities are the interactive components from this lesson plan plus additional games and fun facts for the student. An overview of the various components are listed below:

(ADDITIONAL CONTENT TO BE DETERMINED)

Download Resource File

Download Complete Lesson Plan

Return to Top